Press release: Further action to cut methane emissions from livestock

Defra has committed to working with industry to reduce methane emissions in livestock through the use of methane-suppressing feed products

---

Statistical data set: Family food datasets

Detailed annual statistics on family food and drink purchases.

Call for evidence outcome: Methane suppressing feed products: call for evidence

We’re asking for evidence to help us understand more about giving feed products to livestock that can reduce methane emissions.

Transparency data: Defra: prompt payment data April 2015 to September 2023

How long Defra takes to pay invoices.

Statistical data set: Animal feed prices

Series of straights and compound animal feed prices across Great Britain.