

Letter from the Secretary of State to local authority leaders and metro mayors: Next phase of reforms to accelerate growth and housebuilding

The Secretary of State Steve Reed has written to local authority leaders and metro mayors about the government's next phase of reforms to accelerate growth and housebuilding.