

£1 billion resilience fund and next step towards removal of two-child limit provide safety net for families

Historic legislation to end the two-child limit and lift hundreds and thousands of children out of poverty has moved a step closer to reality today.