

£1 million in contracts awarded to enhance the UK's space capabilities

Secured through the Space to Innovate Campaign – Bravo Drop, five innovative organisations have won funding to develop technologies that enhance the UK's ability to safely operate in space