

10,000 more apprentices as government slashes red tape to boost growth

Shorter and flexible apprenticeships and new English and maths requirements to boost skills and support employers .