

100,000 more people get quicker care thanks to GP funding reform

An 'Advice and Guidance' scheme – backed by £80 million – that enables GPs to liaise with specialists, saw 113,000 more patients receive quicker care in April.