£13.6 million to help families and charities reap benefits of surplus farm produce

Grants to ensure more than 19,000 tonnes of surplus food will be redistributed to homeless shelters, food banks and charities across the country