

£16m legal lifeline for families facing eviction and hardship

Families facing debt, housing or welfare disputes will get earlier access to free legal support through a new £16 million Government fund.