

£2 million boost for integrated education in Northern Ireland

NI Secretary visited Integrated College Dungannon to see how integrated education in NI is delivering reconciliation and building stronger communities.