

£2 million in contracts awarded to enhance Army Engineers with autonomous wet gap survey systems

Three SMEs have won contracts to develop semi-autonomous reconnaissance and survey systems to help the military cross rivers, streams and bogs