

24 universities and colleges awarded investment to boost student places and strengthen UK defence industry

Universities across England awarded a share of £80 million to offer up to 2,500 student places, as well as help build new facilities to support increased capacity growth over the next decade.