

£25 million to deliver vital support for child trafficking victims

Funding will see a consistent, national Independent Child Trafficking Guardians service for child survivors of modern slavery and trafficking.