

£26 million to help hospitals introduce digital prescriptions

25 trusts will receive a share of the funding to replace outdated paper systems, improving patient safety and reducing errors.