

£302m for further education colleges to fix dilapidated buildings

FE college groups across England will receive a share of £302m to fix, maintain and improve their buildings under government's Plan for Change