

50 years on from the signing of the Helsinki Final Act Russia fails to live up to its promises: UK statement to the OSCE

Ambassador Holland commits to continuing to highlight and condemn Russia's attacks against Ukraine for as long as Russia insists on carrying them out. Doing so is necessary because of the obvious humanitarian imperative...