

Why you, your family and your friends should vote UKIP today, by Party Leader Paul Nuttall

There are times in politics, as in life, that it is great to be vindicated.

Last year's Referendum result was one of those times, where the nation voted clearly to leave the European Union, a position that I and Ukip had been laughed at and derided for only a couple of years earlier.