

The Prime Minister must consider an “Empty Chair” after Commissioner gaffe

Pierre Moscovici, the EU Commissioner for Economic Affairs has let the cat out of the bag; there will be no deal or movement towards a deal at this week's summit in Brussels. He has already announced that there will be no movement towards a deal this week. He is saying this before the discussions with the UK have even started.

Go to Source

Author: