

Reopening of Department for Communities offices in Castle Court on Thursday 30 August

Date published: 29 August 2018

Following safety checks due to the fire at Primark, normal service will resume at the Department for Communities (DfC) offices in Castle Court and Royal Avenue Social Security Office on Thursday 30 August.

Offices open

The offices will be open as normal for staff access.

Service to customers will start from 9.00 am for anyone visiting the Royal Avenue Social Security Office or contacting DfC about:

- Personal Independence Payment (PIP)
- Disability Living Allowance (DLA)
- Carers Allowance
- Attendance Allowance
- Welfare Supplementary Payments

Universal Credit

Universal Credit remains unaffected.

Wednesday 29 August

If you need to visit Royal Avenue Social Security office on Wednesday 29 August you can instead use the North Belfast office in the Design Centre, 39 Corporation Street, Belfast.

If you need help, you can also contact your local Job and Benefits Offices, Jobcentres and Social Security Offices.

The Department for Communities thanks all its customers for their understanding and apologises for any inconvenience.

Share this page

Feedback

Would you like to leave feedback about this page? Send us your feedback