

Affordable housing set to benefit from £100 million following CMA probe

Consultation underway on payment by housebuilders and changes to how they handle sensitive information to address CMA's concerns.