

AI to power national renewal as government announces billions of additional investment and new plans to boost UK businesses, jobs and innovation

A major package of new reforms and investment will put AI at heart of government's mission to drive growth, create jobs and spread prosperity across the country.