

Almost two million people on Universal Credit not supported to look for work

Number of people receiving the highest level of support across UC and other benefits increasing 50% since the start of the pandemic, rising above projections.