

Andrew Gwynne response to Theresa May's speech this afternoon in South Wales

Andrew Gwynne MP, Labour's Campaigns and Elections Chair, in response to Theresa May's speech this afternoon in South Wales, said:

"It is clearer than ever that a vote for the Tories is a vote for the few, not the many. Rather than uniting the country and tackling the challenges we face, their policies are divisive and are taking us backwards.

"Only Labour will invest to create shared prosperity. Only Labour will protect our public services."
