

Annual project to reduce coastal flood risk in Lincolnshire starts in June

Workers will follow the government's coronavirus guidance while undertaking the project, which reduces the risk of flooding to homes and businesses.