

Appliance servicing company which used high pressure sales tactics on elderly and vulnerable is shut down

Service Plan UK Ltd pressured elderly people – some of whom had Alzheimer's and dementia – into service agreements to protect household appliances.