

Apply to manufacture or supply microchips for exported birds

You must get approval from Defra to manufacture or supply microchips (injectable transponders) for birds exported to the EU.