

Appointment of three new Non-Executive Directors to the National Wealth Fund

Experts in investment, risk management and local and central government have been appointed to the National Wealth Fund Board, as it moves into a new chapter.