

Malaysia disrupts maritime people smuggling venture

Malaysian authorities, led by the Royal Malaysia Police, have successfully disrupted a maritime people smuggling venture before it could depart for our region.

Consultations on a National Child Sex Offender Register

The Australian Government has commenced national consultations on a proposal to establish a National Public Register of Child Sex Offenders.

Violent and sexual offenders stripped of Australian visas

More than 800 non-citizen criminals were stripped of their visas for serious crimes in 2018.