

Australian Federal Police search warrants

I understand the AFP will shortly release a statement in relation to recent search warrant activity.

People smuggling venture returned to Sri Lanka

Twenty potential illegal immigrants (PII) have been returned to Sri Lanka from a people smuggling venture targeting Australia.

New terrorist organisation listed

The Australian Government has listed Islamic State Somalia (IS-Somalia) as a terrorist organisation under the Criminal Code and re-listed five other terrorist organisations.

A safer and more secure Australia

□The safety and security of Australians is the Morrison Government's number one priority.

Mental health support for police and emergency services

Australia's 300,000-plus police, security and emergency services personnel will be supported through a range of new mental health initiatives.