

Border Permits Review

The Department of Home Affairs has commenced a whole-of-government review into border permits and associated licences in a bid to simplify and streamline processes for industry.

Funding to protect children under Round Four of Safer Communities Fund

Almost $32 million in vital funding is now available to assist organisations working with children that are vulnerable to harassment or violence.

Australia boosts efforts to counter child exploitation

□Australia has enhanced the fight to counter child sexual exploitation offshore with the opening of a new international investigative centre in the Philippines.

Exclusion orders to manage returning foreign fighters

The Morrison Government today seeks to strengthen the arrangements for managing the return of Australians who pose a terrorism threat through the introduction of legislation for Temporary Exclusion Orders.

Joint Media Release with the Hon. Christian Porter, Attorney-General – Strengthening Counter-Terrorism Laws

The Morrison Government is further strengthening counter-terrorism laws to ensure the safety of Australians.