JERUSALEM: Prime Minister Yair Lapid said Monday that Israel would sign an "historic" agreement with Lebanon to demarcate the maritime border between the countries in three days from now.

"On Thursday, we are going to sign a historic agreement with Lebanon," the Israeli premier told his visiting Dutch counterpart Mark Rutte of the US-brokered deal that appears set to unlock production at Mediterranean gas fields.

Israel and Lebanon, who are technically at war, agreed to terms earlier this month on the deal.

Lebanon's top Christian cleric raps MPs for creating 'presidential vacuum'

Sun, 2022-10-23 23:57

BEIRUT: Maronite Patriarch Bechara Boutros Al-Rahi has accused Lebanese MPs of trying to lead the country into a presidential vacuum.

Parliament is set to hold its fourth session to elect a new leader on Monday, as President Michel Aoun's term ends on Oct. 31.

Addressing the Lebanese ruling class in his Sunday sermon, Al-Rahi said: "We have reached the height of political corruption, which is even worse than financial corruption."
