

Photographing the First World War on the Home Front

The Bedford Lemere and Company collection shows how life changed on the home front in England during the First World War.

7 Places Connected to Witchcraft in England

Steeped in legend, these witchcraft sites reveal a history of suspicion and superstition.

Meet Gwen Lally, the World's Pageant Master

We know that there was more to the world's pageant master than met the eye.

The History of England's Village Greens

From cricket matches and maypole dancing to crime and punishment, discover the origins of English village greens.

English High Street Architecture Through the Ages

Explore the changing architectural styles of the English high street.