

Good Relations Indicators 2022 Report

The Good Relations Indicator report published by The Executive Office today presents a range of statistics relating to community relations, including numbers of hate crimes, attitudinal data on Protestant/Catholic relations and attitudes towards mixing in schools, neighbourhoods and the workplace.

---

Cross border trade is surging – Murphy

Building and sustaining cross-border cooperation and trade is key to the growth of our businesses, Economy Minister Conor Murphy has said.

---

O'Dowd offers condolences following fatality on the A5

O'Dowd offers condolences following fatality on the A5

---

Long praises new online prison visits booking system

The Northern Ireland Prison Service is leading the way in offering the first fully online visit booking system across UK prisons.

---

Opportunity to invest in public

services missed – Archibald

Finance Minister, Caoimhe Archibald has said the Chancellor's Budget means the financial outlook for public services remains extremely challenging for devolved governments.