

Archibald launches consultation on low carbon hydrogen

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has today launched a public consultation on the policy for low carbon hydrogen.

---

Archibald – ‘AI presents huge potential to accelerate my Economic Vision’

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald today launched a comprehensive report which highlights the AI potential for significant economic benefits, while adapting to the widescale impact of AI.

---

£55,000 funding boost for Co-operative Research and Awareness

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has announced £55,000 in funding to support co-operative development and raise public awareness of the co-operative business model in Northern Ireland.

---

Health Minister officially opens Rapid Diagnosis Centre

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt officially opened the Rapid Diagnosis Centre (RDC) at Whiteabbey Hospital, a service designed to deliver earlier cancer diagnoses, ensure faster access to treatment, and improved outcomes for patients.

---

Delivering reform through community optometry

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt and Permanent Secretary Mike Farrar joined Optometry Northern Ireland (ONI) at an event in Stormont to highlight the vital role of community optometry in improving access to care and shaping the future of eyecare in Northern Ireland.