

Givan launches applications for Research-Informed Conferences

Education Minister Paul Givan, has today launched a new call for applications from schools across Northern Ireland to host Research-Informed Conferences during the 2026-27 academic year.

Education Minister cuts first sod at £10 million new school in Glenravel

Education Minister Paul Givan has celebrated the beginning of construction of a new school building at Mary Queen of Peace Primary School in Glenravel.

Weekend road closures required as work progresses at Strule Shared Education Campus

Full weekend road closures will be in place over a number of weekends in May and June to allow for resurfacing works on Mountjoy road, Old Mountfield road and Lisanelly Avenue in Omagh.

Kimmins calls for safe travel to the Ulster Senior Football Championship

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins is urging all spectators travelling to and from the Ulster Senior Football Championship final in Clones to take care on the roads and have a safe journey.

Archibald launches consultation on new regulatory framework for 'heat beneath our feet'

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has launched a public consultation on proposals to introduce a new regulatory framework for geothermal energy in Northern Ireland.