

Muir welcomes publication of UK Pesticides National Action Plan 2025

Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs Minister Andrew Muir has welcomed the publication of the UK Pesticides National Action Plan 2025 (NAP).

Health Minister concludes successful visit to Washington

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has concluded his visit to Washington, where he engaged with key healthcare leaders.

Lyons announces new partnership with historical institutions of Washington

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has announced a first-time partnership with Washington's historical institutions to uncover and tell the stories of our shared past.

Publication of 'DVA Monthly Tests Conducted Statistics – February 2025'

The 'DVA Monthly Tests Conducted Statistics – February 2025' report, is now available.

Northern Ireland's time to shine

Deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly said her series of engagements in Washington this week provided an opportunity to champion the case for Northern Ireland and show that we are open for business.