

Kimmins announces £365,000 road improvement scheme for Staffordstown Road, Randalstown

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £365,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on Staffordstown Road, Randalstown will commence on Monday 17 March 2025.

Northern Ireland's time to shine

Deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly said her series of engagements in Washington this week provided an opportunity to champion the case for Northern Ireland and show that we are open for business.

Progress being made on west Belfast bilingual road traffic sign pilot

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has welcomed the progress that is being made on a pilot scheme to provide traffic signs in both Irish and English in the Gaeltacht Quarter of west Belfast.

Economy Minister welcomes multimillion deal for Artemis Technologies in the US

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has welcomed the latest international success of Belfast-based Artemis Technologies during her visit to the United States.

Ending Violence Against Women and Girls: Experiences and attitudes of 16 year olds in Northern Ireland in 2024

The 'Ending Violence Against Women and Girls: Experiences and attitudes of 16 year olds in Northern Ireland in 2024' report was published by The Executive Office today.