

Economy Minister holds power restoration meetings

Economy Minister Conor Murphy this afternoon met with the Department for Energy Security and Net Zero Minister Michael Shanks MP to discuss power restoration efforts following Storm Éowyn.

We owe a debt of gratitude to staff: Health Minister

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has praised NI Fire and Rescue Service crews, who have been dealing with multiple incidents including fallen trees and electrical poles, and health and social care workers for their service and dedication during Storm Éowyn.

Department for Infrastructure Update on Storm Éowyn

With weather warnings still in place for Storm Éowyn, a significant number of roads are blocked with fallen trees, branches and debris.

Long praises essential staff and frontline responders

Justice Minister Naomi Long commends staff and front-line workers for their commitment to keep people safe during Storm Éowyn.

Statement from the Executive on severe weather

The Executive has met this evening and thanked all front line workers who have been keeping people safe during the impacts of Storm Éowyn.