

'Undertake One Small Environment-Friendly Act Every Day': Environment Minister

Exhorting the people to undertake one small environment-friendly act every day, Environment Minister, Dr. Harsh Vardhan has invited people to share any environment-friendly act with the Ministry on the website. Addressing a large gathering at the concluding

India's Foreign Trade: May 2017

Exports have been exhibiting positive growth for the last eight months. In continuation with growth indicated by exports since September 2016, exports during May 2017 have shown growth of 8.32 per cent in dollar terms valued at

India Pavilion at Expo 2017 Astana – A Mega Attraction

India's national pavilion at the International Exhibition Expo 2017 (June 10-September 10) in Astana, Kazakhstan is a major attraction for the visitors. India's participation in this event has been organized by the India Trade Promotion Organization (ITPO), New Delhi.

There is an urgent need for developing 'common minimum agreement' for cyber security issues-Manoj Sinha

Minister of Communications Shri Manoj Sinha has called for migrating from 'Information Societies' to 'knowledge societies' so as to ensure that information is not only created and disseminated but also put to the service of mankind.

Highlights of India's bilateral meetings with foreign countries

On the sidelines of WSIS Forum 2017, Shri Sinha met Dr. Debretsion Measho, Ethiopian Minister of Communications and IT.