

Muir hosts workshop to tackle climate change and environmental issues

DAERA Minister Andrew Muir has hosted the first in a series of workshops to foster yet further links with scientists and academics to provide the science led interventions required in tackling Climate Change as well as addressing environmental issues across Northern Ireland.

Long committed to improving Criminal Justice journey for victims

Justice Minister Naomi Long is committed to improving the Criminal Justice journey for victims.

Nesbitt pledges maternity care improvement drive

A new Maternity and Neonatal Partnership will be established to drive forward improvements in maternity care, Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has announced.

‘Radical system-wide change needed in maternity services’

Co-ordinated system-wide change is urgently needed to radically improve maternity care in Northern Ireland, an independent review has found.

Statutory Orders for A5 have been made

The Department for Infrastructure has published the formal Notice of Intention to proceed with the first phase of the A5 Western Transport Corridor Scheme and confirmed that the Direction, Vesting and Stopping-up Orders have been made.