

Archibald updates Assembly on Utility Regulator Consultation following Storm Éowyn

Economy Minister, Dr Caoimhe Archibald, has today published a written statement updating the Assembly on the Utility Regulator's (UR's) consultation of the Electricity Guaranteed Standards of Service (GSS).

Nesbitt sets out primary care expansion plans

Planned investment in primary care will create hundreds of thousands of additional patient appointments in Northern Ireland, Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has stated.

Our social enterprise sector contributes an estimated £933m to economy – Archibald

The scale and impact of the local social enterprise sector has been set out in a new report launched by Economy Minister, Dr Caoimhe Archibald.

Minister Long praises work of Probation Board

The Justice Minister has met teams working across the Probation Board for Northern Ireland, to hear how they manage the challenges of rehabilitating, reintegrating and reducing re-offending

Education Minister Pays Tribute to John Wilkinson OBE

Education Minister Paul Givan has paid tribute to Mr John Wilkinson OBE, former Principal of Dromore High School, following the sad news of his passing.