

Ministers announce £3.4million road improvement scheme for Omagh is to commence

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins and Education Minister Paul Givan have announced that a £3.4million road improvement scheme on Mountjoy Road/ Gortin Road, Omagh, close to Strule Shared Education Campus will commence on Monday 28 July.

Vulnerable babies to be offered first long-acting injection for common winter virus

Babies born very prematurely in Northern Ireland will be offered a single long-acting injection against respiratory syncytial virus (RSV) later this year.

Communities Minister 'tees' off at The Open

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has met with spectators and golfers at the 153rd Open Championship at Royal Portrush.

Ministers welcome major benefits and opportunities as The Open returns to the north coast

The First Minister and deputy First Minister have welcomed The Open back to our beautiful north coast, hailing the significant benefits and opportunities presented by the return of golf's oldest major championship.

New Legislation on Disposal of Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCBs) comes into effect

PCBs are man-made organic compounds which were used in components of various products, including electrical equipment, before they were banned in 1986 under the UN Stockholm Convention.