

New Legislation on Disposal of Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCBs) comes into effect

PCBs are man-made organic compounds which were used in components of various products, including electrical equipment, before they were banned in 1986 under the UN Stockholm Convention.

Minister Launches New Partnership Agreement Between Government and Voluntary and Community Sector

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has welcomed the new Partnership Agreement between the Northern Ireland Executive and the Voluntary and Community Sector, which marks a significant step forward in strengthening collaboration, trust, and shared purpose across both sectors.

Minister welcomes Competition and Markets Authority announcement

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has welcomed the Competition and Markets Authority's (CMA) announcement that Northern Ireland is set to benefit from a social housing funding boost.

Pedestrian and cycling enhancement for the Black Paths, Craigavon moves to next phase

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that the next phase of upgraded pedestrian and cycling infrastructure at the Black Paths Craigavon will commence on Monday 28 July.

Kimmins reminds all those attending The Open to plan ahead and take extra care on the roads

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has reminded those attending The 153rd Open in Portrush to plan their journey, use public transport if possible, and drive and park safely and responsibly.