

Consultation launched to tackle use of mobile phones while driving

A tougher new law around using handheld mobile phones while driving is being proposed by Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins in a bid to make our roads safer.

Kimmins announces £ 725,000 road improvement scheme for A22 Killinchy Road, Comber

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £725,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the A22 Killinchy Road Comber will commence on Monday 2 June 2025.

Education Minister cuts first sod at Kilronan Special School

Education Minister Paul Givan has cut the first sod on a £4.9million project at Kilronan School, Magherafelt.

Public consultation on Children's and Young People's Emotional Health and Wellbeing Framework

The Health Minister has launched a 14-week public consultation on a draft Children's and Young People's Emotional Health and Wellbeing Framework.

Kimmins announces £223,000 road improvement scheme for Spa Road, Ballynahinch

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £223,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on B175 Spa Road, Ballynahinch will commence on Monday 26 May 2025.