

Long praises essential staff and frontline responders

Justice Minister Naomi Long commends staff and front-line workers for their commitment to keep people safe during Storm Éowyn.

Department for Infrastructure Update on Storm Éowyn

With weather warnings still in place for Storm Éowyn, a significant number of roads are blocked with fallen trees, branches and debris.

We owe a debt of gratitude to staff: Health Minister

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has praised NI Fire and Rescue Service crews, who have been dealing with multiple incidents including fallen trees and electrical poles, and health and social care workers for their service and dedication during Storm Éowyn.

New £1 million DAERA survey vessel renamed in honour of unwavering champion for nature

Family, friends and ex-colleagues of the late Joe Breen OBE, met at Belfast Marina in Abercorn Basin for the renaming of the Department's new survey vessel to the 'Joe Breen'.

Agencies ready to respond to Storm Éowyn

Multi-agency preparations are underway to respond to any impacts as a result of Storm Éowyn, following a Met Office amber warning for strong winds. The warning is valid from 6am-9pm on Friday, 24 January. Gusts could reach speeds of 80-90mph and are likely to cause disruption.