

Lyons welcomes launch of Shankill: A Plan to Grow

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has welcomed the launch of a new plan to support the growth of the Greater Shankill area in Belfast.

---

Drinking Water Inspectorate publishes 2024 report

The Drinking Water Inspectorate (DWI), which is responsible for regulating drinking water quality, has today published its Annual Report for 2024. It states that drinking water quality in Northern Ireland is of a high standard.

---

First Minister and deputy First Minister unveil memorial plaque for victims and survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly today unveiled a memorial plaque at Parliament Buildings to honour all victims and survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse.

---

Minister announces dedicated advice service for Armed Forces community

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has announced dedicated advice services for the Armed Forces community.

---

Victims' views sought in parole process consultation

A consultation focused on improving victims' engagement in the parole process has been launched by the Department of Justice.