

Executive calls for urgent action on Local Growth Fund as pressures mount on voluntary and community sector

The Executive is calling for urgent changes to the Local Growth Fund to prioritise people and vital services here. We understand the depth of anger and frustration across the voluntary and community sector because these services are lifelines for many individuals and communities locally and the current position is neither sustainable nor fair.

Justice Minister condemns Lurgan security alert

Justice Minister Naomi Long has condemned a security alert in Lurgan.

Care Closer to Home: New Neighbourhood Health and Wellbeing Model published

The Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has today published his Department's new Neighbourhood Model of Health and Wellbeing Framework.

Consultation launched on firearms licensing

Justice Minister Naomi Long has published a public consultation on firearms licensing.

Fuel continues to be delivered as normal – Archibald

Following reports over the weekend of fuel shortages at a small number of local filling stations, Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has reassured the public that there is no confirmed disruption to local fuel supply chains.