

Emergency Care Waiting Time Statistics (October– December 2025)

The Department of Health (DoH) today published statistics on the time spent in emergency care departments (ED) throughout Northern Ireland during the months of October, November, and December 2025.

DAERA: Regulations to establish climate change Just Transition Commission progress

Minister Andrew Muir MLA has today welcomed progress in the establishment of a Just Transition Commission for climate change policy in Northern Ireland.

First offers of financial support issued to local clubs through Northern Ireland Football Fund

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has announced that the first offers of financial support have issued to football clubs through the Northern Ireland Football Fund.

First Minister and deputy First Minister welcome Catherine Connolly, President of Ireland to Stormont

Castle

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly today welcomed Catherine Connolly, President of Ireland, to Stormont Castle during her visit to Belfast.

Long: Sexual abuse relies on stigma and fear to remain hidden

The Justice Minister told a conference in Belfast today that confronting sexual abuse requires everyone to play their part.