

Kimmins launches recruitment campaign for Roadworkers and Civil Engineering trainees

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has launched two new recruitment campaigns for Industrial Road Workers and Trainee Civil Engineering Assistants. These are important roles which contribute to the maintenance and improvement of the road network.

Muir showcases Northern Ireland's agri-food sector at St Patrick's Day breakfast in Brussels

Dual access to markets in the European Union and Great Britain is a huge advantage for agri-food producers in Northern Ireland, DAERA Minister Andrew Muir has stressed.

Department of Justice launches consultation on five-year Equality Action Plan and Disability Action Plan

The Department of Justice today published a draft Equality Action Plan and draft Disability Action Plan for public consultation.

Northern Ireland deserves its place on the global stage – deputy First Minister

Deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly has said her visit to Washington DC for a series of events to mark St Patrick's Week is an opportunity to showcase Northern Ireland on a global stage

Lyons – Ulster's ties with the US stronger than ever

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has hailed the enduring links between Northern Ireland and the United States and the increased focus this St Patrick's Day on the contribution of people from Ulster.