

Ards and North Down Borough Council receives an update on road infrastructure projects for 2025/26

Members of the Ards and North Down Borough Council received an update from the Department for Infrastructure regarding road maintenance and improvement works in the council area for the years 2024/25 and 2025/26.

Givan welcomes decisive court ruling upholding lawful decision on Integrated school proposals

Education Minister Paul Givan has today welcomed the High Court's judgment which dismissed legal challenges against his decisions not to approve the transformation of Rathmore Primary School and Bangor Academy and Sixth Form College to integrated status.

Reset Plan transforming waiting lists

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has welcomed significant and sustained progress in reducing some of the longest waits for care across Northern Ireland's health service.

Junior Ministers praise organisations delivering good relations projects

Junior Ministers Aisling Reilly and Joanne Bunting have praised local organisations that are working to build a more inclusive and peaceful society.

0'Dowd announces Shared Property Management reform plans

Finance Minister John O'Dowd has confirmed his intention to drive forward reform in the management of shared property following the completion of a departmental scoping study.