

First Minister unveils new public artwork celebrating City of Peace

First Minister Michelle O'Neill has officially unveiled a new public artwork celebrating Derry-Londonderry's status as an International City of Peace.

---

Baby Loss Awareness Week a time for reflection and remembrance

Finance Minister John O'Dowd and Health Minister Mike Nesbitt have joined Sands, the pregnancy and baby loss charity, in marking Baby Loss Awareness Week 2025 (9-15 October).

---

Kimmins welcomes improvement in planning consultation response times

The Minister was speaking as the Department published information today which reveals that 77% of planning applications which were subject to statutory consultation were responded to on time, that is within 21 calendar days or within an agreed extended timeframe.

---

Publication of NI Mental Health Strategy: A Review of the Deliverability of the Strategy's Actions 2026-2029

The Department of Health has published a review of the deliverability of the Northern Ireland Mental Health Strategy's actions over the next three years.

---

Economy Minister launches Board member competition for Invest NI

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has launched a public appointment competition to recruit new Invest NI Board members.